三、阅读理解（本题共10小题，每小题2分，共20分。）

A

根据短文内容，从各小题所给的A、B、C三个选项中选出最佳选项。

When Dean Arnold got his first job, he was miserable. Each time he went to work, he coughed and he could not breathe. Working in a bakery when he is allergic to (对...过敏) flour can be painful.

But Arnold stayed with the National Biscuit Company for ten years. He was a business man and he helped them improve production. At last his health problems became too serious. He left and formed his own company.

With his wife and mother, he founded Arnold Bakery. They tried new recipes changing the kind and amount of flour used. This enabled Arnold to work there without too much pain. The bread, made with unbleached flour(标准粉), was baked in a brick oven.

They began by baking two dozen loaves. The bread was sold door-to-door for fifteen cents a loaf. Winning customers to his unusual, old-fashioned bread took time. But Arnold, struggling against his allergy, built his bakery into one of the largest in the United States.

- () 26. What is a good title for this passage ?
 A. A sick Baker
 B. A Brick-oven Bread Baker

 () 30. From the passage, we can conclude that Arnold was _____.
 A. determined B. brave C. unhealthy

根据短文内容，判断下列句子正误，正确为T，错误为F。

A school in Britain is offering its pupils laptops. Students can use their own laptops in class and for homework at home. Pupils at the school can hand in work online and receive feedback from teachers when they are not in the classroom. It is Britain's first school to offer students laptops. All 1,400 boys and girls will receive one. A laptop cost around £ 400. In all, the laptop project cost the school over £ 500,000. Parents are being asked to pay £ 2 every week for their child's laptop when the child stays at the school. Parents think that the price is very low because laptops are expensive to buy.

The headmaster of the school, Bill Roberts, says that with the help of the laptop, any time students want to learn, they can work whether they are at the school or at home. Mr.Roberts also says, however, that children will continue to use traditional learning materials. Teachers think using laptops can raise pupils' work speed. Parents also think using laptops can help their children learn better. They think they can help children prepare for the real world.

- ()31. Students can use their own laptops both in class and at home.
- ()32. The laptop project cost the school less than £ 500,000.
- ()33. Parents think paying £ 2 every week is very low for their child's laptop.
- ()34. Because of the laptops, children will not continue to use traditional learning materials.
- ()35. With the help of the laptops, students can study better than before.
